Arnold Schoenberg is today acknowledged as one of the most significant figures in music history. He lived his life in the pursuit of his artistic expression. Although his music was largely misunderstood, because he persevered, his inspiration altered the course of classical music composition.

Monday, July 29 and August 5, from 1-2:30 $30
Instructor: Robert Schoenberg  PRE-REGISTRATION REQUIRED
(Yes he actually is related to the composer!)

The course will include excerpts of Arnold Schoenberg's music and pictures of his art work.
The Instructor will demonstrate some musical concepts on his keyboard.
A video of Arnold Schoenberg's inventions will be shown and a video of the Arnold Schoenberg Center will be presented.
All participants will receive copies of all the links for music, art work, inventions and the Schoenberg Center in Vienna, Austria
All participants will have an opportunity to construct a "row of music" as Arnold Schoenberg did with his 12 Tone Technique.
