NASF Tours

Monday September 18, 2017

No activities planned

Tuesday September 19, 2017

Blenko Glass and J.Q. Dickinson Saltworks

Leave Marriott at 9:00am – Return by 4:00pm with a “Farm to Table” lunch at J.Q. Saltworks

Family-owned Blenko Glass has been making traditional handmade glassware in Milton since 1893. They create a wide variety of handmade and mouth-blown glass, including glassware, art and keepsakes. Their pieces are made by skilled craftspeople with imaginative designs and exquisite colors.

J.Q. Dickinson Saltworks is a 7th Generation salt-making family harvests an all-natural salt by hand, from an ancient ocean trapped below the Appalachian Mountain of the Kanawha Valley in West Virginia

Wednesday September 20, 2017

Morning

Capitol Market Farmers Market

Leave Marriott at 9:30am – Return by 12:00pm

Located at the former K & M Freight Station, the Capitol Market works with the WV Department of Agriculture to provide a retail location for over 40 WV Growers and other small WV business

Afternoon

West Virginia Capitol Tour

Leave Marriott at 2:30pm – Return by 4:30pm

WV State Capitol Tour highlight building’s structure of beautiful Indiana limestone and the 293’ gold dome, which is 5’ taller that the United States’ Capitol, which was completed in 1932.