GOUCHER COLLEGE
ALUMNAE/I WEEKEND
APRIL 28-30, 2017
While you are back for Alumnae/i Weekend, we invite you to explore Goucher’s commitment to designing for integrative learning.

Tour the new first-year residence, Pagliaro Selz Hall, and hear about upcoming plans for two more residences in Goucher’s First-year Village. See Saturday’s tour, Goucher Past, Present, & Future.

Learn about the new Interfaith Center and Sacred Space. With the opening of our new Interfaith Center next winter, which will be connected to the chapel, Goucher will be able to offer resources for many faith groups on campus while building acceptance and cooperation among all students. Join Saturday’s interfaith discussion with Chaplain Cynthia Terry and Rabbi Josh Snyder.

Pardon our progress! Mary Fisher Hall is being renovated—our new centralized dining facility and student center will open next year. In the meantime, access to Mary Fisher Hall will be limited. Check out the new location of the Goucher Bookstore on the first floor of the Ungar Athenaeum.

Get ready to roll! Froelicher is on the move—literally. This unprecedented, groundbreaking initiative will transport Alcock, Gallagher, and Tuttle to the opposite side of the campus loop during summer 2017. These spaces will also be renovated to accommodate additional housing for undergraduate students, faculty, and visiting campus groups.

Get ready to be impressed! Hear more about designing for integrative learning at Saturday’s panel, “Teaching a 21st-century Curriculum,” and at the AAGC Annual Meeting and Presidential Update. For the latest on these and other capital projects, visit www.goucher.edu/communitymatters.

Library Special Collections, Ungar Athenaeum, 4th Floor
Participate in a hands-on exercise demonstrating how students are learning about subjects, such as the Civil Rights Movement and World War II, using original historical documents and objects from Goucher’s rare and archival collections. Co-sponsored by the Friends of the Library. Limited to 25 participants.

NEW INTERFAITH CENTER DISCUSSION
Haebler Memorial Chapel
Goucher is building an Interfaith Center connected to the chapel and updating the chapel itself. We will create welcoming spaces, both specific and general, to increase interaction and engagement. Join Chaplain Cynthia Terry; Rabbi Josh Snyder, executive director of Hillel; and current students to look at floor plans and architectural renderings and hear more about these exciting new spaces.

Midway through the Interfaith Center discussion, faith groups will host optional breakout sessions to continue the conversation and fellowship. Goucher Christian Fellowship alumnae/i and current students will meet in the Pinkard Room of the Ungar Athenaeum. Goucher Hillel will host an alumnae/i brunch in the Rosenberg Gallery at Dorsey Center.
POWER OF STORYTELLING, STORY CIRCLE
Thormann 200, Froelicher Hall
For the spring 2017 theme semester, Goucher College is exploring the personal, creative, and academic dimensions of stories. Join fellow alumnae/i in a story circle to share how Goucher has shaped who you are today. Facilitated by staff and alumnae/i.

WHAT IS CLASSICAL PILATES?
Batza Room, Ungar Athenaeum
Panel discussion and demonstration: Past instructors, current instructors, and alumnae of the Pilates Center at Goucher will speak about the discipline of classical Pilates, and how for the last 20 years the Center has enhanced and influenced the Goucher community. Then, feel the difference for yourself with a short Pilates workshop geared toward the aging spine. The Pilates Center at Goucher College: Celebrating 20 years.

NOTES AND NEURONS: MUSIC AND SCIENCE COMING TOGETHER TO ENLIVEN MEMORY
Merrick Lecture Hall
Join a panel of scientists and musicians for a pre-concert interdisciplinary event led by professors Daniel McDavitt (music) and Jennifer McCabe (psychology), followed by a Q&A. Learn about the science and symptoms of Alzheimer’s disease, the power of music to trigger memory and identity, and the therapeutic role music plays for Alzheimer’s and dementia patients. Robert Cohen, the composer of “Alzheimer’s Stories”, will be on the panel.

4 p.m.
MUSIC AND MEMORY
Kraushaar Auditorium
The Goucher College Choirs (Daniel McDavitt, director), Deer Creek Chorale (Martha Banghart, director), and guest conductor Bruce Rogers will present a collaborative concert on the theme of music and memory. Music is increasingly used to help Alzheimer patients, as Oliver Sacks said, “reacquire [their] identity” as “it will call the whole person.” The program will feature the mid-Atlantic premiere of Robert Cohen’s “Alzheimer’s Stories,” as well as the world premiere of a new work composed by Daniel McDavitt, “Three Memories.”

The Music and Memory Collaboration Concert is a separate event happening in coordination with Alumnae/i Weekend. If you would like to attend, please visit musicandmemory.brownpapertickets.com to purchase tickets. (Seating options range between $20-30.)

Library

Thinking Outside the Book
Special Collections & Archives
Goucher College Library
Ungar Athenaeum, upper level

Explore book arts and artists’ books from the college’s Special Collections featuring works from international and local artists, artists’ book distributors, students, faculty, staff, and alumnae/i of Goucher College. Chlöe Vogt ’16 was awarded a Peirce Undergraduate Research Fellowship to develop this exhibit, and some of her works are included.

“A Nursery for Militant Suffragists”: The History of the Women’s Suffrage Movement at Goucher College
Ungar Athenaeum, 3rd floor

This year marks the centennial of the College Day picket of women suffragists on the White House and highlights Goucher students’ involvement in the event. Thirty Goucher women attended the February 1917 march, the largest delegation of any college. The exhibit is curated by Hannah Spiegelman ’15 with the support of a Class of 1960 Rhoda M. Dorsey research fellowship.

Rosenberg Gallery Exhibit
Dorsey Center

2017 Annual Goucher Student Art Showcase

The exhibit will be presented in Goucher College’s Rosenberg Gallery, located in the lobby of the Kraushaar Auditorium, through May 19. The work is juried by the art department faculty and installed by Goucher’s exhibitions director and curator, Laura Amussen, and student gallery assistants. Doreen Bolger, former director of the Baltimore Museum of Art, will be choosing this year’s award winners. Please visit www.goucher.edu/rosenberg or call 410-337-6477 for more information.

Silber Art Gallery Exhibit
Ungar Athenaeum

Goucher Collects: Schools of Thought

This exhibit endeavors to look at various schools, styles, and movements of art in the 20th century in America. This second Goucher Collects exhibition is grouped by region and organized chronologically within each region, thus showing some of the similarities and differences that arose over the course of the 20th century in a variety of media. Silber Gallery is open this Friday and Saturday from 10 a.m.—5 p.m., and Sunday from 11 a.m. – 4 p.m.

Chapel Labyrinth

Located between Haebler Memorial Chapel and Mary Fisher Hall.

Combining the imagery of the circle and the spiral into a meandering but purposeful path, the labyrinth represents a journey to our own center and back again into the world. Labyrinths have long been used as meditation and prayer tools.

You are invited to take time during your visit to walk Goucher’s labyrinth, located between Haebler Memorial Chapel and Mary Fisher Hall.

Music and Memory Concert

The Goucher College Choirs (Daniel McDavitt, director), Deer Creek Chorale (Martha Banghart, director), and guest conductor Bruce Rogers will present a collaborative concert on the theme of music and memory. The concert will feature the world premiere of a new work, “Three Memories,” composed by Goucher College faculty member and Director of Choral Activities Daniel McDavitt. Soprano Carolyn Black-Sotir and baritone Thomas Beard will be featured performers along with a professional orchestra. Mr. Cohen will be present for the performance.
